

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

How will we continue negotiations?

Learning Outcome

Use expressions about relationships and feelings in a range of social and work contexts.

Can Do Statements

- I can plan steps necessary for future action.
- I can negotiate a deal.
- I can talk about jobs and work.

Ask your partner:

- When do you know a negotiation is over?
- How do you emphasize the benefits of the deal?

Let's Explore!

Is Miranda ready to close the deal? Will Farmani sign off on it?

* To "sign off" means to approve something with a signature.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Miranda: Hi Janet. I'm calling you from a private office at Farmani's here.
Janet: Good to hear from you. How are things going?
Miranda: Very good. We are settling on eight million.
Janet: Great. I knew you could do it.
Miranda: We're also agreeing to the inventory-tracking system.
Janet: Hmmm, how does he come across?
Miranda: He seems pretty eager to get this going. However, he's not coming straight out regarding his training needs. We are arranging a future meeting for that. But he seems ready to sign off on our agreements so far. I'd like to go ahead.
Janet: What seems to be the issue regarding training?
Miranda: I'm not sure. But he mentioned some impending discussion with his personnel team.
Janet: Go ahead and sign to what you've agreed on. He'll have to send me a copy. Won't now be the time to mention Ferdinand's role with the dual staging of the main PR events in North and South America?
Miranda: Yes! Great closer. We will need to arrange that.
Janet: Yes. We want to ensure that he feels he made the right partnership choice. It will help him to know that we're already ahead of the game.

Let's Practice!

How did the negotiation go?

Instructions: Organize the mystery sentences. Write each word in the correct order.

1. million / eight / . / settling / We're / dollars / on

2. agreed / system / to / inventory-tracking / . / the / buying / We've

3. eager / this / pretty / to / seems / going / . / get / He / partnership

4. mention / ? / role / time / Ferdinand's / to / Wouldn't / be / the / now

5. so / our / agreements / He / off / sign / on / . / ready / seems / far / to

6. ahead / agreed / you've / sign / Go / to / and / to / what / .

7. follow-up / meeting / . / arrange / a / need / to / We

Let's Practice!

What will Polygon have to do next?

Instructions: Read the sentences. Write the letter of the corresponding category after each of them.

1. He will need to send me a copy. _____
2. We are arranging a future meeting. _____
3. We will need to arrange that. _____
4. It will help him feel confident that are likely to be successful. _____
5. We are settling on eight million. _____
6. I'm signing off on the deal today. _____
7. Make sure to sign off on the agreement. _____
8. He seems ready to close the deal. _____
9. We're agreeing to the inventory-tracking system. _____

Categories

- a. Express plans or arrangements
- b. Express offers or responses to offers
- c. Express decisions

Extension Activity

Can you finalize a business deal? Let's role play!

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

a) Read the following roles and act out a dialogue.

Role 1:

You are about to close a negotiation to deliver training for a company. Your co-worker wants to talk to you before you seal the deal. He has questions and doubts. Make sure you clarify and explain the deal focusing on:

- things you agreed on
 - things that need to be discussed and arranged
- Finally, emphasize the benefits of the transaction.

Role 2:

Your co-worker is about to close a very important negotiation to deliver training for a big multinational company. You have many questions you want to ask them before they close the deal. Brainstorm a list of questions and be prepared to ask them. Finally, give your co-worker permission to close the deal.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I clarify and explain the agreements of a deal.

☐ ☐

I clarify details which still need to be arranged.

☐ ☐

I emphasize a deal's benefits.

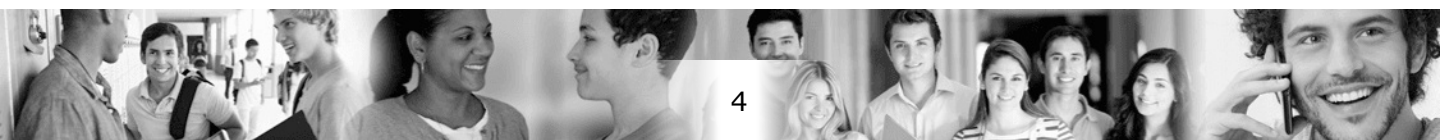

☐ ☐

I ask to clarify details before closing a deal.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- private office (noun): an office that only one person or group may use e.g. I'm calling you from a private office.
- impending (adjective): an event or situation (usually unpleasant) that will soon happen
e.g. He mentioned some impending discussion with his personnel team.
- ahead of the game (expression): being early; having done more research than competitors so far e.g. It will help him to know that we're already ahead of the game.
- to come straight out (expression): to tell something directly without hiding one's plans, feelings or important facts e.g. However, he's not coming straight out regarding his training needs.
- dual (adjective): having two similar aspects or functions
e.g. Won't now be the time to mention Ferdinand's role with the dual staging of the main PR events in North and South America?

Learning Points

Closing a Business Deal

In a business negotiation, it is important to know when and how to complete a transaction or negotiation. You need to make sure the other party understands your terms and any other actions that need to be taken.

Here is some language you can use to ensure you can close a deal.

1. Talking about things you agreed on

We've settled on more than what we expected.

We've agreed to purchasing a new tracking system.

As we agreed, we'll be taking care of the training.

2. Talking about things that need to be decided

He seems pretty eager to get the partnership going.

He seems ready to close the deal.

Wouldn't now be the time to mention our current staff member working in South America?

I am ready to sign off on the agreement.

Sure. Go ahead and sign to what we've decided.

3. Talking about things that need to be arranged (future meeting)

We'll be arranging a meeting for that.

We need to arrange a follow-up meeting to discuss that.

4. Emphasizing the benefits

We want to ensure that you feel this is the right choice for your company.

All in all, you've got yourself a great deal.

Learning Points

Future with Present Continuous and Will

There are many different ways in which you can express the future in English. Here's how to use the Present Continuous and "will".

- Use the Present Continuous to talk about future plans.

We are arranging a meeting in the future

We are settling on a final price.

We are agreeing to system that will help us track our inventory.

- Use "will" to talk about a voluntary action. We normally do this when we respond to someone's offers or offer to do something for someone else.

You'll need to send me a copy of that document.

We will need to make arrangements.

This will help her to know that we are likely to be successful.

