

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

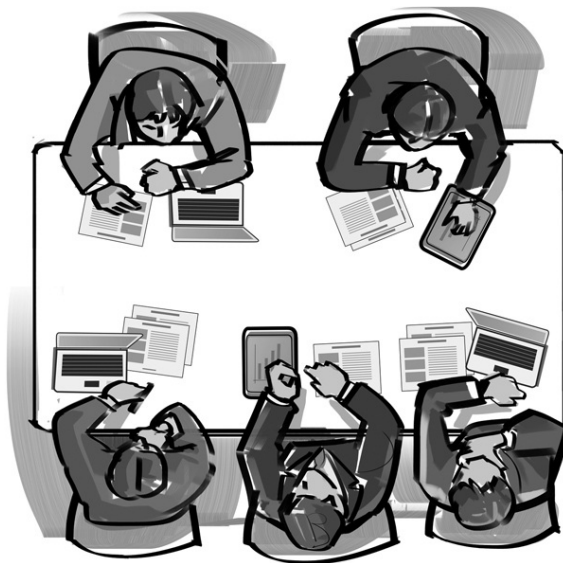

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

It's time to prepare negotiations.

Learning Outcome

Use expressions about relationships and feelings in a range of social and work contexts.

Can Do Statements

- I can plan a negotiation strategy.
- I can work in a team.
- I can talk about jobs and work.

Ask your partner:

- How often do you negotiate at your workplace?
- What strategies did you use? Were you successful?

Let's Explore!

Janet calls Farmani an old hand when she describes the way he does business.

* "Old hand" refers to someone with many years of experience.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Janet: This all looks great Miranda. We've determined that $28,000 is our break-even point.
- Miranda: Yes. But I'll push hard to prevent it from getting under $30,000.
- Janet: Take your time. The key is to not let yourself feel rushed into any decision.
- Miranda: Got it. What figure would you put for our introductory offer?
- Janet: Hmm, we'll have to open with our highest price. Farmani is tight, but he also respects an aggressive driver. I don't think you'd do badly to start at $50,000. Let him drive you down, but appear reluctant.
- Miranda: I guess he knows how the game is played.
- Janet: He's an old hand. But are you feeling up to the task? I could always meet with him if you prefer.
- Miranda: Actually, I'm looking forward to the negotiation. I want to get a feel for the character we'll be working with.
- Janet: Excellent. I knew you were game when I hired you. But give me a call before you sign anything.
- Miranda: For sure. I'll keep you informed.
- Janet: Not only that. We should have a closer to hold back. A little sweetener to offer at the end that will help seal the deal on good terms.
- Miranda: I like that idea. What do you have in mind?
- Janet: I'll let you know. Let me put it down in writing first.

Let's Practice!

Janet says she knew Miranda was game* when she hired her. Does she like this about Miranda or not?

*To "be game" means to be ready to try difficult or challenging activities.

Instructions: Proofread the sentences. Correct the mistakes. Write down the correct sentence in the space provided.

1. But are you felling up to this tasc?

2. I could always met with him if you preffer.

3. I want to got a feel for the charcter we'll be working with.

4. Give me a call befor you sign anytng.

5. For sur. I'll keep you infrmed.

6. I like that idaea. What do you have in mint?

Let's Practice!

Janet and Miranda plan out the negotiation.

Instructions: Match a half from the left with one on the right to complete each sentence.

- | | |
|----------------------------------|--------------------------------------|
| 1. We've determined that | a. but appear reluctant. |
| 2. I'll do my best to prevent it | b. seal the deal on good terms. |
| 3. We'll open with | c. our highest price. |
| 4. What figure would you | d. $28,000 is our break-even point. |
| 5. Let him drive you down, | e. a deal sweetener. |
| 6. We should have | f. from getting under $30,000. |
| 7. It will help | g. put as our introductory offer. |

Extension Activity

It's time to prepare negotiation strategies!

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- You are the manager of a multinational company based in your country, but with offices throughout Europe and Asia.
- You are currently bidding for a large contract to represent an American company in South America to sell their coffee and chocolate in your country.
- Prepare a negotiation strategy including your goals and objectives and alternatives to closing a deal.
- Choose two other co-workers to help you close the deal and assign them specific roles in the negotiation process.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I bid for a large contract.

☐ ☐

I plan a negotiation strategy including goals and objectives.

☐ ☐

I work with an international team.

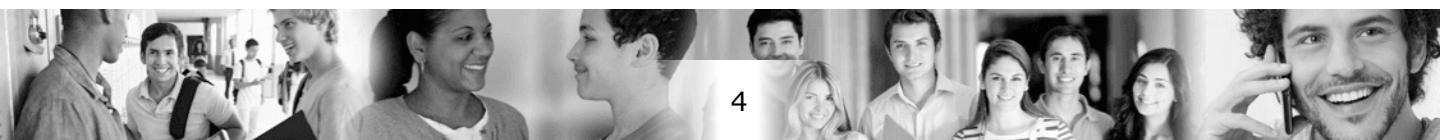

☐ ☐

I assign roles to team members.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- break-even point (expression): when the income from sale of a product or service equals the invested costs e.g. We've determined that $28,000 is our break-even point.
- introductory offer (expression): the amount that a business suggests as a price for their product or services e.g. What figure would you put for our initial services?
- negotiation (noun): a formal discussion where people or groups attempt to reach an agreement
e.g. Actually, I'm looking forward to the negotiation.
- to inform (verb): to give someone facts or information
e.g. I'll keep you informed.
- closer (noun): something that finishes a deal or activity
e.g. We should have a closer to hold back.
- sweetener (noun): something offered to make a deal or decision even more appealing e.g. We should have a little sweetener to offer at the end.
- seal the deal (expression): to come to an agreement
e.g. We should offer him something special at the end to help seal the deal.
- on good terms (expression): having a friendly relationship e.g. We should have a deal sweetener to come to an agreement on good terms.

Learning Points

Planning a Negotiation

Negotiating is a complex skill that requires preparation. In order to negotiate a deal successfully, you need to be clear of your own goals and objectives. Secondly, acknowledge, respect and listen to what the other party has to say. Finally, come up with alternatives to help you close the deal.

1. Goals and Objectives

- We've determined that ... (+ clause)
- We've agreed that ... (+ clause)
- The key is to ... (+ verb)
- We'll open with ... (+ noun)
- Let them ... (+ verb), but appear ... (+ adjective)
- What figure/offer/number would you put for our introductory offer?

2. Acknowledging and Listening

- Yes. That's great.
- That's a fair suggestion.
- I think we can both agree that ...
- You have a strong point there.

3. Alternatives to Closing the Deal

- We should have ... (+ noun)
- A little sweetener at the end will help seal the deal.
- I'll push hard to ... (+ verb)

Learning Points

Working in a Team

Working on teams is a crucial skill you will need to master in order to succeed in your job. Research has shown that people learn more effectively when they learn from others. Therefore, you should learn to work in teams focusing on helping each other.

When working on teams, it is important to:

- agree upon rules and ideas
- I like that idea.
- For sure.
- That's a great idea.
- Got it.

- share understanding
- Take your time.
- I'll let you know.
- I'll keep you informed.

- commit to open communication (asking for opinions and giving suggestions)
- Are you feeling up to the task?
- I could always do the talking if you prefer.
- I want to get a better feel for the person I'm working for.
- Send me an e-mail before you sign anything.
- What do you have in mind?

